ENGLISH MEADOWS NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION is dedicated to making our neighborhood a better place to live through the efforts of every resident.

To prevent crime and enhance our community.

The Riverdale entrance is maintained by GOOD WINDS NURSERY.

Picnic in the Park

APRIL 25th's is Picnic-in-the-Park; the second annual affair put on by EMNA for all neighbors. That's on a Sunday with eating at 4:30. The kids can enjoy the playgrounds in a familiar spot. "Our" Park is at McVay Rd. & Howard. Come early, insider, not just a reporter or political campaign lingo. You owe it to your self and your family to be informed.

The proposed Neighborhood Garage Sale has been put on hold. Only 5 people responded to the call to have one this spring. Perhaps, everyone save up their "sale-goodies" for a big Fall sale. Jack Ridner has the names of everyone that was interested in the spring sale....perhaps if each of you had the other's address and could send your buyers on to the others in the neighborhood, it would benefit all. Jack will be contacting you.

The neighborhood coffees are still going. If you haven't attended one yet, give it a try next month. May's hostess for the Ladies is Ann Jennings. Her address is 2267 Lancashire Cove-from 10: to noon on Wed., May 5th. The dress is casual and good conversation is abundant. The Men are still meeting at Millen & Lutie's home; located at 7270 Stamford. The time is also 10: to noon on Wed., May 12th. Get to know your neighbors!

bring your lawn chairs and mingle with people that live in your neighborhood. There will be door prizes and a portable potty available on site, so no excuses. Grilled hamburgers & hot dogs, chips and drinks are on the menu. Our speaker will also be a neighbor, Mayor Sharon Goldsworthy. The topic will be on CONSOLIDATION; a subject very dear to Sharon's heart. Come hear how we might help to keep this situation from being shoved down our throats, like it or not. Whether you are pro or con for this, please come listen to the view of an

April Crime Tip

Did you know that people intent on wrong doing are getting smarter? Now they can break into your car without you knowing it....They use a punch that makes a small (bullet size) hole right under your door handle, knock a hole through, reach in and unlock the door, as if they had a key. No alarms, broken glass or anything. They tend to leave the important things (to you, purse, cell phone, etc), but what they are really after is the information on your GPS. They find out where home is; they know what you drive, go to your home and if your vehicle isn't there, they assume you are not there. So, don't leave items out in plain view to tempt them. Also, it wouldn't hurt to do a periodical check around the car for that tiny little hole that may indicate that you have been targeted. Identity thief is so easy....for those pros out there! Be ever alert!

WELCOME: A new baby, a new neighbor... please share the good news with your neighborhood. Feel free to contact Lutie Darnell, (754-2989) for a nice welcome gift and lot of good information. If you check in with our website, use info@meadowsmemo.org to introduce yourself also.

GET WELL:

Phillip Coopwood and Jane Johnston are in the process of "getting well". Both live on Lancashire Cove.

CONDOLENCES to the families of:

Seems like way too many of our neighbors are leaving us. Jean Kriger of McVay Cv. passed away last month; had struggled with health issues for many years. She is missed!

Floyd Nunnelle of Riverdale recently passed away.

Manuel Scarmoutsos of Donnington has passed away. He was our speaker for the January Quarterly; an author also of a very witty book about the inner works of lawyers

From the Board:

Did you get your kids to Cumberland Presbyterian for the EGG HUNT? This was a combined effort between EMNA and the church. Due to a very rainy night (before) the front grounds were quite soggy, so the activity took place in the back and inside. All had fun with lots of crafts, games and of course the hunt. Mr. Bunny was portrayed by Andrew Flanigan; good job, Andrew. Hopefully, this will become an annual event. Neighborhoods should strive to keep the kids at home and entertained. Mark your calendars for next year....Big Egg Hunt @ church, Saturday before Easter.

Zone Captains gathered at the Piccadilly recently for breakfast. Did you get your invitation? We had Sharon (the mayor) there also to fill us in on what's going on in Germantown. This Board appreciates what the zone captains do for the neighborhood. They make sure that every home get a monthly newsletter. They also put out the yard flags at every observed occasion. What would we do without them. Even though we're trying to be "thoroughly modern" with the website and electronic devices available to us, we still need those steady hand delivers! Thanks for the work you do!

April 21st the Life Line Screening organization is coming to English Meadows. See the attached PINK addition for information needed.

Your dues are still needed....it's never too late! So, while you're thinking of it, reading this notice, just write that check, stick it in an envelope and mail to Edna. Hope to see you at the PICNIC; you can also pay there.

Brian was our HERO this year...saved a child in the pond at Howard-McVay. Way to go! Such a display of unselfish action.

Help Needed?

There's a young lady, age 17, ready to help you around the house (light housekeeping) and/or babysitting. She's taken the BabySitting Classes; now, just needs a call from you. Give her a call at 624-5772.

VBS is coming.....

June 14-18 from 9:00-12! Information and a registration form can be found on the web site, www.cpcg.org. Check it out, local fun for the kids at Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Registration forms are due no later than May 14th.
