Park Picnic..May 1

We, as an association of neighbors are finally going to get together on Sunday, May 1st from 4:00 to 6:00. The annual Picnic in the Park event is being held at Howard/McVay

Park, western end. Bring your family and lawn chairs for a casual gathering of friends and neighbors for hamburgers, hot dogs, door prizes, election of new officers, a little bit of business and lots of fun. Great door prizes include $100 gift certificates to Germantown Hardware, Germantown Car Wash and Good Winds Nursery. If you perchance, haven't paid your dues, it will be a good chance to do so. Just $15 per year keeps things going around the neighborhood. See you there!

An apology to all Zone Captains. For months now, the wrong phone number has been listed to contact Vince Powers. It has been corrected! Be sure and mark your calendars for when the neighborhood flags are displayed. The upcoming dates are May 30-Memorial Day and July 4th-Fourth of July. Check your flags; it's been awhile. If they are faded or broken, it's time to replace them. Our Flag Man is Vince Powers of 2143 Cornwall, 310-9038 (home) or cell: 704-293-4529. Contact him for your needs.

There's an Easter celebration going on right here in our own neighborhood. It's Saturday, April 23rd from 2-4: at Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Germantown (corner of McVay & Riverdale). There will be egg to hunt, games to play, treats to eat, prizes galore, special surprises and fun for all ages! So grab your Easter basket, friends and neighbors (don't forget the cameras!) and join in for some Easter fun.

EMNA's Spring Garage Sale is on for May 14th. Contact Jack Ridner (754-1436) for more information. Get your balloons from him or at the PICNIC. It's advertised in all local papers, so get busy and clean out all those "other people's treasures!"

In an effort to reach more people quickly, like when the Quarterly was cancelled due to weather, recently, we need e-mail addresses. Please send Dino Palazzolo yours. His e-mail is: rpalazzolo@uthsc.edu.

Crime Watch Tip for April:

Credit Cards, a way of life for most of us. Also the criminals of this world are busy trying to take yours away from you. One way is the old switch out yours for an expired one. Always be alert when using your card, make sure that it is yours that is returned to you especially at restaurants or anytime your card is out of your sight. Develop the habit of checking your credit card each time it is returned to you after a transaction. Beware of people with cell phones in a check out lane; remember that most have cameras now and that can be used to get the number of your card that they can then use at your expense.

A Germantown Veterans' Recognition Committee is asking for help. They are trying to establish a database of the names of all US.Armed Forces Veterans who have or had called Germantown home. The names will be used to establish a permanent memorial to be located somewhere in Germantown, possibly along the Wolf River Greenway. This is an effort to recognize and honor those who served. If you know of a member of the US Armed Forces, living or deceased who has ever called Germantown home, please contact Andy Pouncey at 757-7273 or e-mail ole-mule@bellsouth.net with that information. This is a portion of an article recently published in the Germantown News (March 30).
